Summary

I'm a half-Venetian half-Irish student that graduated from a senior technical school in Venice as an IT Engineer and now I'm curious to learn more about the IT working field searching for exciting opportunities to build a professional experience and at the same time helping people solve their problems (what better combination? :) ).

Things that attract me to the computer science world?

-Networking

-Cybersecurity, Ethical Hacking, Penetration Testing, Digital Forensics

-Algorithms

-Software Development for personal projects

-Project Management

Always ready to apprehend more with every possible tool:

-Books

-Documentaries

-Online Courses

-Video Courses on YouTube

-Certifications

My achievements?

-IT Technical Leaving Cert (see Education panel)

-CCNA Certification

-More to come... :)

Past Experiences?

-6 Years as an Entry level IT support technician for a specialized dog management centre (Company website advisor, fixing IT-related problems with troubleshooting, spreadsheet database management with customer data)

-IT Freelancer, Still active (Fixing IT-related problems)

-IT Help Desk for ATC School of English (Fixing IT-related problems and improving data management with spreadsheets)

What can I bring to humanity?

Constant enhancement through carefully developed projects thanks to my keen sense of observation.

Feel free to get in touch to learn more about me :)
